

Who we are?

The CIPA is the most important companies association in Algeria, its existence dates back more than 30 years.

CIPA puts job creation and sustainable growth between all its action. It dialogues with all economic men and works with various decision-makers to achieve a better understanding of the constraints and strengths of businesses.

CIPA is a crucial shareholder in the tripartite Government, Economic Operators and Patronat and as such, it contributes to building a constructive dialogue, as close as possible to realities on the ground and in best intelligence with trade union organizations.

The strength of CIPA lies in the diversification of its network of companies through regional offices and professional branches

Objectives of CIPA

Accompany Algerian companies in their access to foreign markets;

Support national authorities in promoting a new economic model for Algeria,

excluding hydrocarbons;

- Provide smart solutions, recommendations and support to business leaders for
 - the success of their projects;
- Promote investment in Algeria.
